IMPORTANT DATE REQUESTS

Although Mock Trial Central makes every effort to accommodate scheduling requests, we are asking this year that you please limit your days and/or dates to a minimum number. Rule 12.5 states:

“Accommodations in the Mock Trial schedule will be considered for academic testing and/or religious reasons if the request is submitted before the deadline date provided on the registration form. Other requests for accommodations will be considered only for extraordinary circumstances. Please make sure that your team is available to commit to the entire Mock Trial competition.”

Please note that trials may be scheduled on dates coinciding with the MCAS testing. Mock Trial Central does its best to avoid conflicts but we have a limited amount of dates to work with during the season. If you have any important dates that your team is unavailable to compete due to MCAS testing or other school related conflicts, please list them below or send the list via e-mail by no later than Thursday, November 10, 2016 to mocktrial@massbar.org.
